Premium Leather

Leather brings warmth, texture, and timeless character to any space. Our curated Italian leather collections span from natural aniline hides with lived-in elegance to performance leathers crafted for everyday durability. Each piece reflects the soul of true craftsmanship — rich in tone, supple to the touch, and designed to age with beauty and grace.

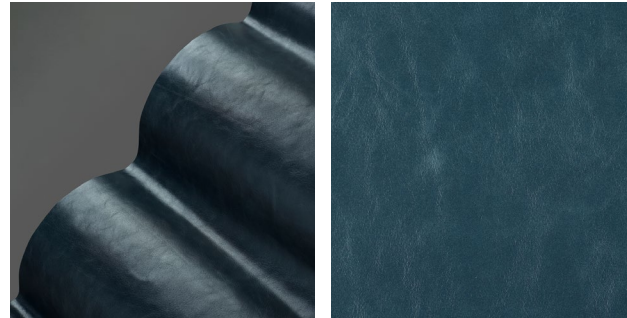

Belmont

A natural, vacuum-dried pull-up leather with a subtle two-tone effect and a buttery hand. Belmont embodies everything we love about aniline hides: richness of color, softness to the touch, and the way it ages gracefully over time. With each year, it develops a patina that tells its own story — adding quiet sophistication to any interior.
